Numb. 10614.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 1, to Saturday April 5, 1766.

Madrid, March 17.

ON Saturday last his Catholick Majesty, and all the Royal Family, arrived here from the Pardo. The Queen Dowager, who has been for some Time indisposed, has not yet been able to admit the Foreign Ministers to pay their Court to her. To-morrow the French Ambassador is to cover himself as Grandee of Spain; the Duke of Lozada, the Great Chamberlain, is to be his Assistant on this Occasion.

St. James's, April 3.

This Day M. Alexis Mousin Pouchkin, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Empress of Russia, had a private Audience of Her Majesty.

To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Harcourt, Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, and conducted by Sir Charles Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, March 29, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on the 6th Day of December, 1764, between the Hours of Eight and Nine in the Evening, a most audacious and wicked Attempt was made to assassinate Thomas Walker, Esq; of Montreal, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for that District, by a Number of Persons in Disguise, who, after giving him above Fifty Wounds and Contusions, many of them of the most dangerous Nature, left him for Dead, but not till they had cut off a Part of his Right Ear, which they carried away in Triumph: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this felonious Attack, is graciously pleased to promise His Royal Pardon to any one of the said Offenders who shall voluntarily surrender himself to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Great Britain or Ireland, or in the Province of Canada, or any other of His Majesty's Dominions, and who shall make a full Discovery of his Accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and also a Reward of One Hundred Guineas, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders principally concerned in the said Facts: And further, That if such Evidence shall happen to be in any Regiment in His Majesty's Service, he shall, if he desires it, have his free Discharge.

H. S. CONWAY.

And the said Thomas Walker doth hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Guineas, to be paid immediately on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders principally and actually concerned in the said Assault.

Thomas Walker.

St. James's, February 3, 1766.

Whereas I have received Information from his Excellency the Earl of Hertford, His Majesty's Lieutenant General and General Governor of the Kingdom of Ireland, That Part of the Cargo and Treasure of the Ship Earl of Sandwich, whereof John Cochran was late Commander, (who in his Voyage in her, from Teneriff to London, was, together with Captain Glass, his Wife and Daughter, Passengers, and some others belonging to the said Ship, barbarously murdered by Part of the Crew thereof) having been found on the Coast of Ireland, is now properly secured in that Kingdom by his Excellency's Order; I give this Publick Notice thereof, to the End, that all Persons concerned in the Treasure and Cargo of the said Ship, so found and secured in abovementioned, may, without Loss of Time, authorize proper Persons to lay in their Claims, in the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland's Chief Secretary's Office in Dublin Castle, and agree upon a Method for settling and ascertaining their respective Properties and Proportions.

H. S. CONWAY.

St. James's, March 29, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Canal at St. Austel in the County of Cornwall has for some Time past been greatly annoyed by some Person or Persons unknown, the Effects of whose Malice appeared soon after the said Canal was begun to be made; and who, from Time to Time, since, have persevered in doing Damage thereto, to a considerable Amount; That in the Night between the 4th and 5th of January last, the Two Stone Piers of the Bridge over the said Canal, leading from the Borough of Bodmin to the Market Town of Mevagizey, were destroyed; and that Mr. John Edyvean having, on the 6th Day of the said Month, caused an Advertisement to be affixed at the Market-House of St. Austel, promising a Reward of Twenty Gnineas for the Discovery of the Person or Persons guilty of that Offence, an Incendiary Letter, dated the 7th of the said Month, and signed Nicholas Norway, was, on the 8th, found also affixed at the said Market-House, threatening the Life and the Destruction of the Effects of him the said John Edyvean: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Facts, or any or either of them, does hereby promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And as a further Encouragement, the said John Edyvean does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, of the Author of the abovementioned Incendiary Letter; and of Twenty Guineas for the Discovery of the Person or Persons

[Price Three-pence.]

Perſons who deſtroyed the Bridge at St. Auſtel; to be paid by him upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

John Edyvean.
